NEWS AND NOTES:

THANK YOU:

To Jaime Georganas for doing a great job organizing a very smooth photo day. (Admin)

SAFETY WEEK IN YORK REGION, SEPTEMBER 21-25

Homeroom teachers are asked to review the Code Red Procedures and the Fire Drill procedures with their classes on Monday. These procedures are detailed in the staff handbook (pink section-pages F2-F5). A summary of the Code Red procedure for staff is also included in this bulletin.

ROC KING CAMP:

Tuesday Sept 29th through Friday Oct. 2 - YMCA Camp Wanakita

64 senior mentors depart 11 am Tuesday Sept. 29th

240 grade 9 students depart 9 am Wednesday Sept 30

Everyone returning Friday Oct. 2, 4 pm

Grade 9 classes will be cancelled. Grade 9 teachers will be covering the classes for attending teachers. Grade 9 students not attending Roc King at Wanakita will be participating in the in-school program Sept 30 through Oct 2 (MPR and Cold Creek CA) (Ley, Schoenhardt, Munro)

THE SIXTH ANNUAL CASE OF DISTINCTION CEREMONY:

A ceremony will be held in the KCSS foyer on Saturday, October 3, 2009, from 9:45 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. to induct the following people into the Case of Distinction. There is the possibility of the inductees being willing to speak to some students or entire classes on Friday, October 2, regarding their particular field of endeavour. Staff who are interested in having one of the inductees come and speak to students should see Teresa Micone.

1. Kelly Underhill (1977) is the director of a large cancer centre, chairs a number of hospital and regional health care committees, and sits on Senator Baucus’ Montana health reform advisory committee. She is a noted cancer-care specialist in the States.

2. Dr. Chris Castel (1972) is a Research Professor at Koriyama Institute of Health Sciences, Educational Foundation Koriyama Tohto Academy, Fukushima, Japan, as well as a well-known pain management and acupuncture specialist in the States.
3. Jon Brooks (1987) is a Grammy-winning Canadian song-writer and singer. He has offered to speak to Tom Walker's music students.
4. Doug Smith (1963) has been a visiting professor of Business Education at universities from Saskatchewan to South Carolina, from Germany to London, England. He has constructed many significant business models for industry and acted as a consultant to many corporations and been co-editor of a major business publication in the States.

ECO SCHOOL MEETING:

All staff members are welcome to attend this meeting. (Kofalvi)
